vite spoletto
inclusive by nature

Welcome to Spoleto

- A city of art and music, home to the Festival dei Due Mondi
- A historic center filled with churches, fortresses and theatres
- Surrounded by the green heart of Umbria, with woods, hills and ancient trails
- A place of social experimentation and cultural innovation

The spirit of the place

- Here history, culture and everyday life come together
- Beauty is everywhere: from medieval alleys to natural landscapes
- Tradition and innovation live in harmony
- Art is not just admired — it's lived and shared
- Inclusion is part of the city's identity
- Every visit is a genuine encounter with the community

VITE

hospitality with soul

- From inclusive cohousing to a welcoming guesthouse
- VITE means LIVES — plural, evolving, full of meaning
- In different location in Spoleto, hospitality run by people with disabilities
- A model of empowerment, not assistance

Social impact through tourism

- With tutor support, young people with disabilities run every aspect of hospitality — breakfasts, guest welcome, room care
- Guests learn, hosts grow
- Skills, autonomy, shared meals
- Slower, deeper travel to truly connect with the place and its people

A replicable model

- Low-cost, high-impact
- Combines care, work and hospitality
- Prepares for future challenges of aging and inclusion

Tourism that changes lives

- Redesign who can host
- Diversity as value
- A movement of dignity and inclusion
